GTU'S "Bharat – Tirth" Held Second Lecture on "The Expansion of IKS in Modern Times"

GTU has started a monthly series of "Bharat – Tirth" lectures under Dharohar Center for Indian Knowledge System.

The second lecture was delivered by Prof. Ritendra Sharma, Director of Center for Indic Studies, Indus University. He enlightened how Indian seers have made a long-lasting impact on western scientists like Aldous Huxley, Joseph Campbell, David Bohm, and Thinkers like Emerson, Walt Whitman, and Thoreau, etc. Prof. Sharma explained how Indian thought and Philosophy changed the course of lives of thousands of westerners. Even Beatles had become disciples of Maharshi Mahesh yogi. Thus not only in Ancient India but also in the modern world, India and Indian seers have impacted the west for the last two centuries and have proved India as the "Vishwa Guru".

GTU staff, Faculty, and Students had shown their keen interest and after the session discussed issues with the learned speaker. Hon. Vice-Chancellor sir and Registrar sir could not join because of other engagements but wishes through message.
