REPORT

GTU'S "Bharat – Tirth" Held Third Lecture on "Prachin Havamanshastra (Ancient Science of Meteorology)"

GTU has started a monthly series of "Bharat – Tirth" lectures since June 2022 under Dharohar Center for Indian Knowledge System.

The third lecture was delivered by Dr. Vidyadhar Vaidya, Asst. Prof. in the Department of Agricultural Meteorology, BACA, AAU, Anand and Member of Vijnana Bharati. He enlightened the audience with the ancient science of Meteorology and illustrated various effective methods of predictions based on observation and the position of constellations in the context of monsoon prediction.

Shri Vaidya also invited questions and answered them. The audience was stupefied by his knowledge and information regarding ancient Indian Science of meteorology which is not much known to the common people.

Registrar Shri K. N. Kher remained present at the event and encouraged the students. Dr. Shruti Anerao, Section-Head of Dharohar – CIKS, GTU expressed gratefulness to the chief speaker Shri Vidyadhar Vaidya, Member of BOS – Dharohar, and Dr. Prashant Kunjadia and Dr. K. N. Kher, Registrar for sparing their precious time for this third lecture of "Bharat-Tirth" Lecture Series.
